1. On 14 June 1946 the following trains were observed passing through the Berlin Freight Station at Lichtenberg:

- 1 train of 44 cars with machine tools.
Destination Moscow, Kaliber Works.
- 2 trains with 40 and 42 cars respectively with equipment of an aluminium factory. Destination Boksitnaja for Sewaluminijstroj (Boksitnaja has something to do with Bauxite).
- 1 train with machine tools, 39 cars. Destination Moscow, armament works No. 122
- 2 trains of 38 and 43 cars respectively. Destination Moscow, No. 782 works.
- 1 train of 36 cars with machine tools and lifting equipment.
Destination Krematorsk for Stankostroj.

2. The works with numbers mentioned above were known to be armament works before the German invasion of Russia.

3. Also observed were four barges in tow on a canal, with machinery in crates marked "Destination Usolskaja for Sawod Konserwirowanija".
